

New low cost business training option for stay at home moms and families - training you to make clay handprints for children.

Released on: December 16, 2007, 5:54 pm

Press Release Author: Hedy and Ross Hale

Industry: Small Business

Press Release Summary: Original Pawprints unveils a new low cost home business training option for stay at home moms and families making clay handprints for children and pets.

Press Release Body: Original Pawprints unveils a new low cost home business training option for stay at home moms and families making clay handprints for children and pets.

16 December 2007 – Professionally produced DVD and manual training materials provide complete step-by-step guide for this outstanding small business startup idea.

Morro Bay, California, December 16, 2007 – Original Pawprints has issued a highly polished home training option using DVD technology to help moms and families start a home business producing beautiful kiln fired ceramic handprints – baby handprints, pet pawprints – as cherished keepsake items. These clay handprint keepsakes are customized for each person (or their pet) to mark the important events in the course of life. Examples of these unique handprint keepsakes can be found at <http://www.work-from-home-moms.net>.

The clear and complete training materials contain the breadth of experience owners Hedy and Ross Hale have gleaned from over 30 years of experience making clay handprints and baby handprints. This small business startup idea is explained in complete detail covering materials, methods for making the highest quality ceramic impressions, marketing and business management procedures needed to make a successful family home business.

Trainees are supported with unlimited free technical advice for the first 30 days after purchase of the home-based training materials.

This home based ceramic handprints business is excellent for moms and families who prefer to work from home or on a self-determined schedule that is family-friendly. The actual work is with babies, children, families and pets, and is a rewarding and creative alternative to ordinary jobs.

Original Pawprints home based business training is also beneficial for studio-based work. Existing ceramics business owners, including paint your own ceramics businesses, will find making clay handprints and baby handprints a compatible and profitable fit with their existing work. This small business start up idea easily complements most ceramic studios business plans.

Home-based training materials can be purchased online at <http://www.work-from-home-moms.net> or by phone at 805-772-2890.

About Original Pawprints is a 33-year-old company in Morro Bay, California, USA. As a full service ceramics business making art-quality ceramics plus in-studio personalized training and production of all kinds, Original Pawprints is uniquely positioned to counsel new business owners in how to make a small business startup idea successful. Owned by Hedy and Ross Hale, who are certified teachers, Original Pawprints works with new business opportunity seekers in whatever way is needed.

For more information, visit <http://www.work-from-home-moms.net>.

###

Web Site: <http://www.work-from-home-moms.net>

Contact Details: Hedy or Ross Hale
President/Vice President
Original Pawprints
for Free As A Breeze, Ltd
805-772-2890- Phone
805-772-7755- FAX
info@work-from-home-moms.net