Press Release Summary: Alphalogix, an IBM Premiere Business Partner today announced that they are the recipients of this year's Lotus Award in the Best Portal Solution category for the 15th annual IBM Lotus Awards.

Press Release Body: Huntington Beach, CA – January 7, 2008 – Alphalogix, an IBM Premiere Business Partner today announced that they are the recipients of this year's Lotus Award in the Best Portal Solution category for the 15th annual IBM Lotus Awards. Only one IBM Business Partner is selected annually for this award in recognition of delivering a solution leveraging IBM WebSphere® Portal.

Alphalogix was selected from a group of top IBM Business Partners from over 30 countries. The Best Portal Solution award recognizes a solution that leverages IBM WebSphere Portal software standalone or in conjunction with one of IBM's five IBM Accelerators to create a dynamic internet, intranet, and/or extranet work environment. Rising to the top of the field this year, was Alphalogix's

Complete Enterprise Portal, integrating IBM WebSphere Portal, Lotus Quickr team spaces, Alphalogix Tasica Business Process Automation Solutions including IBM Lotus Forms, IBM Dashboard Framework, and Lotus Sametime. Using the Complete Enterprise Portal, Alphalogix helped Golden State Foods, a $4B global manufacturer and distributor in the food services industry for companies such as McDonalds and Starbucks, create a hosted intranet enterprise portal complete with business process automation, collaboration capabilities, dashboard technology and effective communication channels to enhance business efficiency between their departments and communication with their customers.

"As a long time Business Partner of IBM, we are honored to receive this award as recognition of our solution's powerful integration with IBM software including WebSphere Portal," said Bob McCandless, CEO of Alphalogix. "We are looking forward to continuing this relationship as Alphalogix expands and extends the IBM software value with the Tasica brand of workflow and portal solutions."

As a two-time past winner of this award, Alphalogix has long been a leader in providing quality hosted portal solutions to its customers. Alphalogix has recently expanded its solution to include a crucial workflow component using its Tasica Forms Director product, which will be demonstrated at booth 435 in the Product Showcase at Lotusphere 2008 in Orlando, Florida.

About

Alphalogix

Alphalogix is a long time, IBM Premiere Business Partner with expertise in portal technology, electronic forms and workflow solutions. As a past two-time Lotus Award winner for "Best Worldwide Portal Solution" and the recent winner of the 2008 Lotus Award for "Best Portal Solution", Alphalogix has built and hosted collaborative portal solutions that connect people and applications together for both small business to Fortune 500 companies. Tasica Forms Director is a rapid application development tool that integrates seamlessly with IBM Lotus Forms 3.0, creating a complete electronic form and workflow solution that can be deployed in a portal environment, extending the portal's value with security and role-based business process automation. Forms Director is the recipient of Lotus Advisor's Editors' Choice Award 2007 for "workflow" solution.
