Press Release Summary: YOUSTRIP.COM CELEBRATES USER PARTICIPATION FROM OVER 160 COUNTRIES

Press Release Body:
YouStrip.com is a pioneering new Website, uniquely situated at the 'crossroads' of three multi-billion dollar markets - glamour, internet & mobile. YouStrip.com is leading a new wave of User Generated Content, estimated to be worth over $2bn in the next few years.

In just a few months since launch YouStrip.com has inspired Women from all over the world to 'release their inner showgirl', and enter their personalised striptease into the first global competition of its kind. YouStrip.com is now the fastest growing entertainment Website in its category.

Women download one of the specially created music tracks - neutralising any copyright issues - and then video their striptease which they upload. Akin to burlesque, it's all about having fun and being creative, whilst expressing energy, personality and vitality!

Across the world everyone gets a chance to vote for their favorites, and each week the votes are tabulated to form the YouStrip.com charts. The winners are normally those 'strips' that are more creative and unusual, and demonstrate a freedom of spirit that is YouStrip.com. Prizes are given for both uploading and voting, and monthly winners also get the chance of a modelling contract with one of the UK's top glamour agencies.

As YouStrip.com continues to grow it will be announcing deals with artists and record labels, who want to showcase their music to a global audience and will be inviting the top country winners and best selling artists to a party in London on Thursday 22nd May 2008.
