Press Release Summary: Alan Rommel, promoted to managing director of the recruitment arm of Parity Group plc

Press Release Body: Alan Rommel joined Parity at the end of 1993 and since then he has steadily developed his career and actively contributed to many of the organisation's achievements. Most recently, he has been leading the public sector recruitment operation, strengthening Parity's position in the market with many successes; amongst these, the win of two supplier awards through the Catalist Framework Agreement, and taking the business to the top of the suppliers' list in IT and project & programme management services within the framework.

The company has now decided to entrust into Rommel's hands the whole recruitment business, promoting him to managing director. "This appointment recognises the talent that Parity nurtures and also illustrates the commitment of the organisation to reward success with real opportunities for development", said Parity Group CEO Alwyn Welch.

Asked about his new challenge as managing director, Alan Rommel commented: "I am passionate about the approach that Parity is taking and I am absolutely confident that the way we work with clients and candidates, the professionalism of the team and our focus in staff specialisation will continue to take the business in a very positive direction”.

Parity's IT recruitment arm is structured in specialised teams to ensure all staff are focussed on their area of expert knowledge, covering a range of IT skills from project and programme management jobs to niche markets such as Systems, Applications, and Products in Data Processing (SAP), and establishing specific communities in the public sector. With a national network of offices in the UK, Parity's clients and jobseekers have the benefit of a national service and the convenience of local account management.

About Parity Group plc
