Online children's boutique carries environmentally friendly natural baby clothes with formaldehyde-free dyes

Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif., May 2009 -- Sandbox Couture.com, a popular online children's boutique retailer of baby clothes, girls clothes and baby gifts, today introduced the addition of Baby Star organic children's clothing. The addition of Baby Star organic baby clothes complements SandboxCouture's existing cadre of quality, brand-named children's wear while answering the growing demand of safe and eco-conscious children's products.

"Environmentalism isn't just a trend, it's a mandate if we're going to leave any kind of legacy for our youngsters," stated Sam Brown, spokesperson for Sandbox Couture. "The use of sustainable, non-toxic materials with a safe yet vibrant pigmentation process is what parents are seeking. With summer around the corner, they want only the safest, most natural materials close to baby's delicate skin, which will be more exposed in warmer weather. Baby Star organic clothing combines fun and timeless designs with comfort and washable, easy care instructions for busy families."

The collection features whimsical prints and batiks paired with boys and girls one-pieces, separates, dresses, hooded towels, bibs, blankets and burp cloths, and crib sets. From Buddha kimono sets and sleepers to hooded suits, these organic pieces feature super soft cotton and Baby Star's unique designs. Crib bedding, diaper bags and burp cloth sets make for great baby and baby shower gift-giving.
