[Malibu, CA] — Sunset Malibu, an exclusive treatment center on the California coast, has long been a transformational force in the field of rehabilitation and recovery. Now, Sunset is announcing its redoubled efforts to provide its clients with a private and dignified healing experience.

Addiction is a crippling disease. To succumb to Substance Abuse is to be stripped of one's self-esteem, and one's sense of self-control. The logical corollary, of course, is that addiction treatment must first aim to help patients learn to feel good about themselves again. In the end, there's no other route to sustained and sustainable recovery.

That concern for emotional well-being lies at the heart of Sunset Malibu's treatment philosophy.

With its world-class caregivers and elegant accommodations, Sunset Malibu is an unparalleled recovery destination. The center has always catered to upscale residents from every corner of the globe. Now Sunset is renewing its commitment to its core values, with the goal of delivering self-affirming care to individuals who seek it. At Sunset Malibu, the client's feelings always come first.

"Our clients invariably come to us with negative self-concepts," says Sunset Malibu owner Richard Taite. "Our first job is to help them see themselves in a new light. With our advanced dual-diagnosis techniques and intensive depression treatment programs, we've had great success in creating the right kind of change."

It's that kind of success that is precisely what separates Sunset from its competitors.

It's one thing for a treatment facility to pay lip service to the importance of psychological healing. It's quite another for that facility to actually put principle into practice. Many of the most high-priced treatment clinics in Los Angeles only superficially address the emotional needs of their residents—with disastrous consequences for those residents and their families.

Taite argues that those kinds of shortcomings are absolutely inexcusable.

"Rehab is a life and death issue," Taite said. "At Sunset Malibu, we understand that. We know what's at stake in the fight against addiction, and we commit ourselves to honoring the trust our clients put in us. As we see it, no inferior level of service is ever acceptable."

Addiction is a pernicious and destructive foe. It is not, however, an unconquerable one. Sunset Malibu's long record of success proves that effective rehabilitation really does change lives. For Sunset's successful graduates, that lesson has made all the difference in the world.
