

Voodoo Tiki Tequila Introduces Fiery Cocktails Just in Time for National Tequila Day and Mexican Independence Day

Released on: July 16, 2009, 12:53 am

Author: Elissa Butcher

Industry: Food & Beverage

Los Angeles, CA (July 14, 2009) Feel some heat coming your way? Tequila drinkers around the world wait in anticipation as National Tequila Day (July 24th) and Mexican Independence Day (September 16th) loom right around the corner. This year, Voodoo Tiki Tequila will be introducing one-of-a-kind cocktails to spice up your night. Make the best of your National Tequila Day with the smooth, refreshing taste of the Prickly Pear Margarita or light up the sky for Mexican Independence Day with a Tiki Torch Mar-Tiki. Also be sure to spice up your life with a loved one or enjoy the warmth of a few friends by sipping on Voodoo Tiki Tequila's Platinum Mar-Tiki.

Filled to the brim with flavor, Voodoo Tiki combines both splash and zing, making your drink more sizzling and tasteful than ever. Each bottle of Voodoo Tiki Tequila is hand blown, and is inscribed with words such as, "happiness," "love," and "success." These words have been said to bring magic to the owner of the bottle.

Celebrate the holidays right, by adding some magic to your night:

National Tequila Day (July 24, 2009)

Prickly Pear Margarita

2 oz Voodoo Tiki Desert Rose Prickly Pear Infused Tequila

1/2 oz Triple Sec

1 oz Orange Juice

2 oz Sour Mix

1/2 Grenadine

Rim: Salt or Sugar

Serve: Up Rocks Frozen

Garnish: Sugar Coated Lime Wheel

Mexican Independence Day (September 16, 2009)

Tiki Torch Mar-Tiki

3 1/2 oz Voodoo Tiki Anejo Tequila

1 oz Everclear or Grain Alcohol (float and ignite)

1 1/2 oz Fresh Lime Juice

Rim: Sugar

Serve: Up

Garnish: Sugar Covered Lime Wedge

About Voodoo Tiki Tequila:

Voodoo Tiki tequila is made in the highlands of Jalisco, Mexico in the region known as "Corazon de los altos," renowned for being blessed by nature with geographic features integral to the cultivation of the sweetest and largest "Agave Azul." Voodoo Tiki Tequila offers a full range of high concept, high quality Ultra-Premium and Super-Premium hand-crafted tequila made from the highest quality 100% Weber Blue agaves aged between 10 and 12 years. Voodoo Tiki Tequila Corp. chooses only the biggest and sweetest agaves, which are baked between 26-48 hours, and to ensure the finest flavors, their tequila is distilled twice. The brand is currently sold in 23 states and 4 countries!www.voodootiki.com

Please contact us for Samples, Artwork or Media Requests.

Contact Details: Elissa Butcher

954-786-1742

Press@voodootiki.com

www.VoodooTiki.com