[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims expect luxurious and exclusive service from their rehabilitation facilities. Unfortunately, their search for such high-end service is often impeded by a lack of transparency in the luxury rehab industry.

Now, finally, that dynamic is beginning to change.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best treatment and recovery facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the addiction treatment facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

Given the nature of rehab center advertising and information campaigns, such objective insight can make all the difference in the world.

Rehab is a complex process. To make an intelligent rehabilitation decision, prospective patients need thorough and accurate information about the various clinics available to them. The fact of the matter is that smart choices are and can only be made by informed individuals. In the end, there's simply no better way to guarantee a successful outcome to the healing process.

Unfortunately, many "exclusive" treatment facilities actively and intentionally obscure the truth about their programs and amenities.

There's plenty of drug treatment information on the Internet. Some of it is accurate. Much more of it is misleading. It's one thing for a treatment center to boast about its "guaranteed" addiction treatment strategies-but quite another for that facility to actually live up to its promises. In the opaque world of online brochures, it's often difficult to distinguish the pretenders from the real thing.

Under the circumstances, that sort of confusion can lead to disaster.

Addiction is an awful disease. Addiction treatment can help to solve the problem, provided that it's administered by people who really do know what they're doing. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has already helped countless clients find professional rehab facilities worthy of their trust. As those clients have learned firsthand, no gift could ever be more valuable.

"You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the healing I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention," reads one of the clients testimonials on the LuxuryDrugRehab.com Web site. "All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."

And that healing, in the end, is the only outcome that really matters.
