[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims routinely seek treatment from rehab facilities that can help them get sober without compromising their luxurious living standards. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of transparency in the luxury rehab industry.

Now, though, prospective rehab patients have a trusted source on the inside.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best treatment and recovery facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

For drug abuse victims and their families, that sort of insight can literally make a world of difference.

Rehab is always an arduous process. To complete it successfully, patients need to feel wholly supported in their efforts, and wholly comfortable in their environments. The logical corollary, of course, is that the best rehab facilities are those which best meet the individual needs of their individual clients. In the end, there's no other way to achieve meaningful and lasting recovery.

The bad news, though, is that those principles aren't always put into practice.

It's one thing for a drug rehab center to say that it cares about its clients. It's quite another thing for that facility to live out the meaning of its marketing slogans. The unfortunate truth is that many of the most "exclusive" treatment centers in Los Angeles fall far short of their own standards of service. As should be obvious, those centers are woefully ineffective in helping their residents heal.

Given the stakes in the rehabilitation process, that sort of failure can lead to disaster.

Addiction treatment is literally a matter of life and death. LuxuryDrugRehab.com exists to ensure that its clients get the best possible support in the fight against substance abuse, with the ultimate goal of helping those clients rebuild their lives from the ground-up. It's no secret that substance abuse strips its victims of their hope and joy and dignity. The good news is that LuxuryDrugRehab.com has been enormously successful in rebuilding what's been broken.

"You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed," reads one of the testimonials on the LuxuryDrugRehab.com Web site. "It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
