[Malibu, CA] - Sunset Malibu, an exclusive treatment center on the California coast, has long been a transformational force in the field of rehabilitation and recovery. Now, Sunset is announcing its redoubled efforts in helping clients achieve sustainable emotional healing.

Substance abuse is never a strictly physical disease. On the contrary, substance abuse victims are sick both in body and in mind, and substance abuse rehab programs must always promote psychological wellness. In the end, there's simply no other way to ensure a successful outcome to the recovery process.

That emphasis on psychiatric health, in turn, lies at the heart of Sunset Malibu's treatment philosophy.

With its world-class caregivers and elegant accommodations, Sunset Malibu is an unparalleled recovery destination. The center has always catered to upscale clients from every corner of the globe. Now Sunset is renewing its commitment to its core values, with the goal of delivering life-changing emotional therapy to individuals who seek it. At Sunset Malibu, the client's holistic need always comes first.

"Real healing has to happen from the inside-out," said Sunset Malibu Program Director Dr. Georgina Smith. "Our clinical psychologists employ advanced dual-diagnosis techniques to assess each client's psychiatric health in conjunction with his or her substance dependency, and design their treatment programs on the basis of the results. We believe that our record of success proves the effectiveness of that methodology."

But that sort of effectiveness, unfortunately, makes Sunset almost unique among its competitors.

Most treatment facilities claim to appreciate the importance of holistic treatment and recovery. But only a few of them adequately serve the psychological needs of their clients. Indeed, many of the most high-priced rehab facilities in Los Angeles offer woefully inadequate psychiatric care. As should go without saying, those facilities can't be trusted to promote meaningful or lasting sobriety.

Dr. Smith insists that such shortcomings are unacceptable.

"Rehab is literally a matter of life and death," Dr. Smith said. "At Sunset Malibu, we believe that anything less than the best possible care constitutes a breach of our professional and personal obligations. Simply stated, we either do it the right way, or we don't deserve to do it all."

Addiction is a devastating disease. Successful substance abuse treatment can help patients rebuild what's broken-but only if it's administered by competent, compassionate professionals. Sunset Malibu boasts a record of success that speaks for itself. The only question that remains is whether California addiction victims will be wise enough to listen.
