[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek the services of luxurious and exclusive rehabilitation facilities. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of reliable information about the luxury rehab industry.

That's about to change.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best treatment and recovery facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the alcohol rehabilitation or drug rehabilitation facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

For addiction victims and their families, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

Addiction treatment is a tremendously delicate process. To be successful it has to be administered with empathy and expertise, by people who understand exactly what they're doing. The practical implication, of course, is that even the most luxurious treatment center in California can't help patients if it fails to provide assistance from experienced and competent caregivers. In the end, there's simply no substitute for clinical excellence in the healing process.

But those principles aren't always put into practice.

Most treatment centers pay lip service to the importance of caregiver expertise. Unfortunately, only a handful live up to their own standards. The fact of the matter is that many of the most heavily-advertised treatment centers in Los Angeles employ inexperienced or unqualified counselors and therapists. As should go without saying, these institutions routinely fall short of the promises they make to their clients.

Given the stakes in the fight against addiction, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

It's no secret that addiction ruins lives. The good news is that addiction treatment can save them, provided it's delivered by the right people and in the right environment. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has already proven itself capable of helping clients find the best possible way forward. As those clients have learned firsthand, the first step on the road to recovery may well be the most important one of all.

"I just want to say thank you," reads one of the testimonials on the LuxuryDrugRehab.com Web site. "You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
