[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek care from treatment facilities that can help them recover without sacrificing their luxurious living standards. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of transparency in the luxury rehab industry.

Now, though, prospective rehab residents have a trusted source on the inside.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best treatment and recovery facilities on earth. Treating drug and alcohol addictions, to depression to eating disorders, the goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

Given the differences between and among various rehab facilities, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

No two dual diagnosis rehab clinics are ever alike. On the contrary, every facility is fundamentally shaped by the quality of the caregivers it employs. The best treatment centers, of course, are invariably those staffed by the most competent and compassionate professionals. In the end, there's simply no substitute for clinical excellence in the healing process.

But those principles aren't always put into practice.

Every rehab center pays lip service to the importance of caregiver expertise. Very few institutions, though, live up to their own standards. The unfortunate truth is that many of the most high-priced clinics in California employ unqualified counselors and therapists. As should go without saying, those institutions can't be trusted to promote meaningful and lasting recovery.

With so much at stake in the fight against addiction, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

No addiction victim needs to be told about the perils of the disease. The good news is that those perils don't have to be fatal, provided that victims are wise enough to seek treatment from the right professional experts. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has proven itself capable of facilitating that search process. As the company's clients have learned firsthand, no service could ever possibly be more valuable.

"You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention," says one of those clients in a testimonial published on the LuxuryDrugRehab.com Web site. "All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is a referral service dedicated to connecting callers with the right dual diagnosis rehab center.
