[Malibu, CA] - Cliffside Malibu, a prestigious addiction recovery facility on the Malibu coast, has long been a leading light in the California treatment community. Now, the center is pleased to announce its renewed commitment to providing high-profile residents with private and dignified care.

Addiction is a personal problem. Addiction recovery, in turn, must be a personal process. Celebrity rehab residents need the utmost privacy during their rehabilitation experiences-and that privacy must be safeguarded by the drug treatment centers to whom they trust their health.

Those principles, in turn, are the bedrock of Cliffside Malibu's treatment philosophy.

With its expert caregivers and posh amenities, Cliffside Malibu is a world-class institution. The center has always catered to an elite clientele. Now Cliffside is expanding its mission, with the goal of delivering the most confidential care on the planet to those individuals who need it. At Cliffside Malibu, nothing less than absolute privacy will ever be acceptable.

"Our high-profile residents face unique challenges on the road to wellness," said Cliffside Malibu Clinical Director Patricia Freeberry. "It's our job to ensure that they're able to pursue addiction recovery in a serene and secluded environment. We believe that our passion for privacy helps to account for our long record of success."

Unfortunately, that passion for privacy is precisely what distinguishes Cliffside from its competitors.

Most addiction recovery centers pay lip service to the importance of client privacy. But some actively forsake their own principles. Indeed, many of the most "exclusive" addiction recovery clinics in Los Angeles go so far as to leak information about celebrity residents to the media for purposes of self-promotion and financial gain. As should go without saying, those facilities rarely help clients achieve meaningful and lasting healing.

For recovery patients and their families, say Cliffside administrators, that sort of failure is unacceptable.

"Rehab is literally a matter of life and death," said Freeberry. "We understand the stakes for our clients, and we do everything in our power to ensure a positive outcome to the treatment process. To do anything less would be both unprofessional and unethical."

It's no secret that addiction ruins lives. The good news here is that addiction recovery programs can save them-but only if they're administered by compassionate and discreet professionals. Cliffside Malibu has a long record of helping high-profile addiction victims recover without sacrificing their personal privacy. Under the circumstances, it's hard to imagine that any service could ever be more valuable than that one.
