Lord Mayor Councillor John O'Hare has officially opened a new car showroom for ACF Car Finance Limited in Walsall.

The showroom was officially opened in a ribbon cutting ceremony performed by the Lord Mayor and celebrated with a Grand Open day at the location. Customers and guests attending enjoyed entertainment and refreshments, as well as being able to take advantage of the special offers available.

During the open day, Lord Mayor Councillor John O'Hare met employees of ACF Car Finance and was taken on a tour of the new, glass fronted showroom.

The purpose built showroom for the leading specialist sub-prime car dealer situated on Wolverhampton Road West, features better facilities for their Used Car Finance customers across the region.

Stuart Brotherton, Branch Manager, comments: "We're delighted that our official opening was a success and we have already received positive feedback on our new showroom. We offer a variety of cashback and part exchange deals and with many people facing financial difficulties we hope, by offering our specialist services, to help more people from across the region to find the perfect car."

His worshipful the Lord Mayor, Councillor John O'Hare comments: "This new showroom is proof that businesses are still expanding in Walsall despite the current financial situation and will hopefully have a positive effect on the region's economy."
