[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek luxury drug treatment programs that can help them heal without sacrificing their elegant lifestyles. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of information from and about luxury drug treatment facilities.

Now, though, prospective drug treatment patients have a trusted source on the inside.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best treatment and recovery facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

Given the differences between and among various drug treatment programs, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

Drug recovery has to be built on a foundation of trust. That trust, in turn, must begin with the manner in which a drug treatment clinic advertises its services. The most successful drug treatment program is the one described most accurately to prospective patients. In the end, anything less than the absolute truth is simply unacceptable.

Unfortunately, those principles aren't always put into practice.

There's plenty of drug treatment information on the Internet. But prospective patients can't believe everything they read online. On the contrary, many drug treatment facilities exaggerate or distort the nature of their drug treatment programs. Unsurprisingly, these institutions rarely live up to the promises they make in their advertising brochures.

For drug treatment program participants and their families, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

No addiction victim needs to be told about the perils of the disease. The good news is that those perils don't have to be fatal-provided that victims seek help from professional and ethical drug treatment facilities. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has a long record of matching clients with competent and compassionate caregivers. As those clients have learned firsthand, no service could ever possibly be more valuable.

"You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention," reads one of the testimonials on the LuxuryDrugRehab.com Web site. "All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
