[Malibu, CA] - Sunset Malibu, an elite treatment facility on the California coast, has long been a transformational force in the field of rehabilitation and recovery. Now, Sunset is announcing its redoubled efforts in helping clients regain their personal dignity on the road to wellness.

Addiction is a psychologically crippling disease. To succumb to substance abuse is to be stripped of one's self-esteem, and one's sense of self-control. The practical implication, of course, is that addiction treatment facilities must first and foremost help clients learn to feel good about themselves again. In the end, there's simply no other valid foundation for meaningful and lasting recovery.

Those considerations, in turn, are at the heart of Sunset Malibu's treatment philosophy.

With its world-class caregivers and elegant accommodations, Sunset Malibu is an unparalleled recovery destination. The drug treatment center has always catered to upscale clients from every corner of the globe. Now Sunset is renewing its commitment to its core values, with the goal of delivering ennobling, life-changing care to individuals who seek it. At Sunset Malibu, the client always comes first.

"Most of our clients come to us with severe emotional issues," said Sunset

Malibu Program Director Dr. Georgina Smith. "We make it our mission to resolve those issues, with everything from special dual-diagnosis techniques to professional depression treatment. We believe that that focus on psychological healing helps to explain our robust record of success."

But that focus, unfortunately, is also what sets Sunset apart from its competitors.

It's one thing for a treatment facility to say it cares about the emotional well-being of its clients. It's quite another for that facility to actually live up to its own promises. The truth of the matter is that many of the most well-known clinics in Los Angeles offer inferior psychological therapy to their residents. It should come as no surprise that those institutions routinely fall short of the goals they set for their treatment programs.

Dr. Smith, for her part, insists that those shortcomings are inexcusable.

"Successful rehab literally saves lives ," Dr. Smith said. "At Sunset Malibu, we believe that we're obligated to provide clients with the best possible support in the best possible healing environment. To settle for an inferior level of service would be a breach of our personal and professional duties."

No addiction victim needs to be told what's at stake in the rehabilitation process. To be sick is to become a shell of one's former self; to be healed is to rediscover the world as one used to know it. The clinical experts at Sunset Malibu have a long record of helping clients rebuild their lives from the ground-up. Under the circumstances, it's hard to imagine that any outcome could ever be more important than that one.
