[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek care from rehab clinics that can help them heal without sacrificing their elegant lifestyles. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of transparency in the luxury drug rehab industry.

Now, though, prospective patients can turn to a trusted source on the inside.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best detox and recovery facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

Given the misleading advertising strategies employed by some rehab facilities, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

Addiction recovery must always begin with the truth. Addiction victims have to be honest in assessing their own problems, and addiction treatment facilities have to be honest in portraying their ability to solve those problems. The most successful clinics are invariably those which present clients with a full and open statement of the facts. To do anything else is to jeopardize the outcome of the healing process.

Unfortunately, those principles are rarely put into practice

There's plenty of information about luxury drug treatment facilities on the Internet. But prospective patients shouldn't believe everything they read online. On the contrary, many rehab clinics make dubious or outright false claims about their treatment programs and accommodations. As should go without saying, these institutions rarely help their clients achieve meaningful or lasting wellness.

With so much at stake in the fight against addiction, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

No addiction victim needs to be told about the perils of the disease. The good news is that those perils don't have to be fatal-not if patients get the right care from the right people. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has a proven record of success in helping clients take the first step on the road to recovery. Under the circumstances, it's hard to imagine that any form of assistance could ever be more important.

"You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention," reads one of the client testimonials on the LuxuryDrugRehab.com Web site. "All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
