[Malibu, CA] - Sunset Malibu, an elite drug treatment center on the California coast, has long been a transformational force in the field of rehabilitation and recovery. Now, Sunset is announcing its redoubled efforts in helping clients achieve long-term drug recovery.

Drug treatment never succeeds overnight. On the contrary, addiction is a resilient disease, and recovery must be long-term process. The best drug treatment facilities are those which help clients develop the skills and strength they need to stay sober forever. In the end, any inferior standard of care is simply unacceptable.

Those considerations, in turn, are at the bedrock of Sunset Malibu's drug treatment program philosophy.

With its world-class caregivers and elegant accommodations, Sunset Malibu is an unparalleled recovery destination. The center has always catered to upscale clients from every corner of the globe. Now Sunset is renewing its commitment to its core values, with the goal of delivering life-changing long-term drug treatment to individuals who seek it. At Sunset Malibu, the client always comes first.

"The healing process doesn't end on the last day of primary rehab," said Sunset Malibu Program Director Dr. Georgina Smith. "Sober living and aftercare programs are essential to the ultimate success of rehab and recovery-which is why we invest so heavily in the long-term care of our clients, and why those clients enjoy such positive long-term results."

Sunset's competitors, meanwhile, can't make the same claim about their own treatment programs.

Most drug treatment facilities acknowledge the importance of long-term care. But only a handful put their own principles into practice. The unfortunate truth is that many of the most high-priced drug treatment clinics in Los Angeles focus exclusively on the primary rehab process. It should come as no surprise that these institutions routinely fail to help clients stay sober over the long run. Those shortcomings are inexcusable.

"Our clients trust us to save their lives," Dr. Smith said. "We're both humbled and motivated by the responsibility, and we stop at nothing to ensure the long-term success of the healing process. To do anything less would be to breach our professional and moral obligations."

No addiction victim needs to be told about the perils of the disease. The good news here is that the right treatment program really can make a world of difference. Sunset Malibu has a long record of helping clients heal forever, in a way that allows them to rediscover life as they used to know it, and themselves as they used to be. Under the circumstances, it's hard to imagine that any service could ever be more valuable than that one.
