[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek treatment from elite private drug rehabs. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of transparency in the luxury rehabilitation industry.

Now, though, prospective patients have a reliable source on the inside.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best luxury drug rehab centers on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find drug rehabs that are exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

Given the differences between and among luxury drug rehabs, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

The drug rehab process must be rooted in trust. Addiction victims are in an enormously vulnerable position, one that demands both honesty and sensitivity from drug rehab administrators. The best drug rehab programs, then, are those which most accurately describe their programs and accommodations to prospective clients. In the end, anything less than absolute transparency is simply unacceptable.

But those principles aren't always put into practice.

Some luxury drug rehab centers really do portray their services accurately in their advertising brochures. Unfortunately, far more drug rehabs use those brochures as tools to mislead and deceive. The truth is that many of the most well-known drug rehabs in Los Angeles disseminate inaccurate information about themselves. As should go without saying, these institutions can't be trusted to help clients heal from the inside-out.

For recovery patients and their families, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

Every addiction victim understands the perils of the disease. The good news is that those perils don't have to be fatal, provided that victims get assistance from upstanding drug rehab experts. The professional counselors at LuxuryDrugRehab.com have a long record of helping patients find the best caregivers on the planet. Under the circumstances, it's hard to imagine that any outcome could be more important than that one.

"You found me a drug rehab program where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention," says one client in a testimonial published on LuxuryDrugRehab.com's Web site. "All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
